

2016 StatsRRTC State of the Science Conference

Disability Statistics: Lessons in Data Collection and Application to Policy and Practice

February 13, 2017 | 9 am—4 pm

National Academy of Sciences Auditorium

2101 Constitution Avenue, NW | Washington, DC

Agenda

8:30 AM Registration & Refreshments

9:00 AM Welcome & Introduction

- Andrew Houtenville, University of New Hampshire (UNH)
- David Wittenburg, Mathematica Policy Research (MPR)
- Ruth Brannon, National Institute on Disability Independent Living & Rehabilitation Research (NIDILRR)

9:30 AM Panel 1: Emerging Options for Obtaining Data

Moderator: David Keer, former NIDILRR

- Eric Lauer, UNH, Identifying People with Disabilities in Fed. Surveys
- Kimberly Phillips, UNH, Web versus Traditional Survey Methods
- Jesse Chandler, MPR, Pilot Survey using a Web-Based Follow-Up Panel

10:30 AM Break and Networking

11:00 AM Panel 2: Using Program and Linked Data

Moderator: Andrew Houtenville, UNH

- Debra Brucker, UNH, Housing Policy with Linked Data
- David Mann, MPR, Long Term VR Outcomes
- David Wittenburg, MPR, Comparing SSDI Earnings in Survey and Administrative Records

12:00 PM Lunch (Provided) and Poster Sessions

1:30 PM Panel 3: Data to Inform Policymakers

Moderator: Amanda Reichard, NIDILRR

- Amanda Botticello, Kessler Foundation, The American Disability Belt
- John O'Neill, Kessler Foundation & Andrew Houtenville, UNH, nTIDE-Trends
- Yonatan Ben-Shalom, MPR, Tracking SSDI Receipt

2:30 PM Break

2:45 PM Panel 4: Data to Inform Practitioners

Moderator: Michael Gamel-McCormick, Association of University Centers on Disability (AUCD)

- David Vandergoot, Center for Essential Management Services, Inc. (CEMS) & John Connelly, Council of State Administrators of Vocational Rehabilitation (CSAVR), WIOA Measures & Effectiveness
- Lewis Kraus, Public Health Institute (PHI), Using Local Statistics in California
- Susan Dooha, Center for Independence of the Disabled, New York (CIDNY), Advocating using Local Statistics

3:45 PM Brief Closing Remarks

Michael Murray, American Association of People with Disabilities (AAPD)

2016 Annual Disability Statistics Compendium

February 14, 2017 | 9 am—1:30 pm
National Academy of Sciences Auditorium
2101 Constitution Avenue, NW | Washington, DC

Agenda

8:30 AM Registration and Refreshments

9:00 AM Welcome & Introduction

- Andrew Houtenville, UNH
- Amanda Reichard, NIDILRR
- Michael Murray, AAPD

9:30 AM Panel 5: Compendium/Annual Report Release

Moderator: Deb Brucker, UNH

- Eric Lauer, UNH, What's New
- Lewis Kraus, PHI, The Annual Report
- Andrew Houtenville, UNH, Long-Term Trends

10:30 AM Break

11:00 AM Panel 6: Federal Data & Survey Updates

Moderator: Hugh Berry, NIDILRR

- Amy Steinweg, United States Census Bureau, forthcoming
- Elizabeth Courtney-Long, Center for Disease Control, Data Activity Updates from NCBDDD
- Julie Weeks, National Center for Health Statistics, forthcoming
- Savi Swick, Office of Disability and Employment Policy, Value of Actionable Data in Disability Employment
- Renee Marshall, United States Bureau Labor Statistics, BLS Occupational Requirements Survey

12:30 PM Brief Closing Remarks

Andrew Houtenville, UNH

12:35 PM Lunch (Provided) and Poster Session

The StatsRRTC is funded by the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Community Living, NIDILRR – Rehabilitation Research and Training Centers (RRTCs) Program under grant number 90RT5022-02-00, from 2013 - 2018.

