PRESENTERS

John Robinson, Our Ability's President and CEO, is dedicated to connecting individuals with disabilities towards education and employment through mentoring, workshops, public speaking as well as job placement. Our Ability is the only disability owned and operated business dedicated to building employment opportunities through our job platforms, employment webinars, digital profile system and personal empowerment.

The job placement portal Jobs Ability, is making the complex simple by offering an AI driven platform where candidates with disabilities can enter their skills and experience, and then receive endorsements and references that reinforce their value to future employers. Our Ability is a certified disability owned and run business that creates game-changing strategies for enabling full inclusion of people with disabilities.

- In 2019, John Robinson was named and served on Governor Andrew Cuomo's Reimagine the Erie Canal Commission.
- In 2018, John Robinson presented with the Chamber Champion Award in recognition of actions that have advanced the mission of the Capital Region Chamber.
- In 2014, named one of ten national White House Champions of Change for Disability Employment by the Obama Administration.

John Robinson is the subject of "Get Off Your Knees: The John Robinson Story" a public television documentary seen around the United States and other countries. Autobiography of the same title published by Syracuse University Press in 2009.

Andrew Houtenville, PhD, is an Associate Professor of Economics and Research Director of the Institute on Disability at the University of New Hampshire. Dr. Houtenville is extensively involved in disability statistics and employment policy research. He has published widely in the areas of disability statistics and the economic status of people with disabilities. He is the Principal Investigator on the NIDILRR-funded Employment Policy and Measurement Rehabilitation and Research Training Center. Dr. Houtenville received his Ph.D. in Economics from the University of New Hampshire in 1997 and was a National Institute on Aging Post-Doctoral Fellow at Syracuse University in 1998/1999.
